The student will not be considered for future gifts or disbursements if a copy of the thank you acknowledgement is not received by the trustees in a timely manner.

Other Items to Remember:

-Remember to complete the FAFSA early.

-Written references must be specific to the GHS Educational Trust application and must be signed and dated by the author.

-Financial Aid is not just scholarships and grants. It includes any loan: Subsidized and Unsubsidized Student Loans, Parent PLUS Loans, and private loans.

-Students must maintain full-time student status. In the event that a student drops below fulltime status, the trust must be reimbursed for the full amount of the gift by the school. If the deadline to be reimbursed by the school has passed, the student, at the discretion of the trustees, may not be eligible for a gift for the following semester. It is the student's responsibility to verify reimbursement from the school to the trust. Students may reapply when their transcript confirms that they have completed a full-time course load and are in good academic standing. Students in this position, will be notified in writing of their temporary ineligibility by the trust.
